2.The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute between the parties, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked him with iron rod and stick and also threatened him with dire consequences.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent police opposes for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. He fairly conceded that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is not having any previous case.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegation made against the petitioners, the antecedents of the petitioner and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kulithalai, Karur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/-(Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned
