2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, on 08.04.2024, the petitioner and others trespassed into the defacto complainant's house, attacked him with wooden rod and caused injuries. They also gave life threat to him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that there is no specific overt act against the petitioner. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the defacto complainant sustained simple injury. No previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of injury and the antecedent of the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate on condition that
