connection with a case in Crime No.67 of 2024, for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) IPC, has filed this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the accused has abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, attacked him with hands and questioned him regarding the administration of their village temple. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that there is no specific overt act against the petitioner. The petitioner went to the occurrence place just to discuss about the discrepancies happening in the administration of the temple. But the defacto complainant foisted a false complaint. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the defacto complainant sustained simple injury.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the nature of injury, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate on condition that
