2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that due to her ill-health, the petitioner was not able to appear before the respondent police for a period of one week and therefore, the respondent police has not permitted the petitioner to sign the register. Hence, the petitioner has approached this Court for modification.

3. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent submits that the petitioner is not complying with the condition regularly.

4. Since the petitioner has not complied with the condition, this Petition is dismissed with liberty to the respondent police to move an application for cancellation for bail.
