2.The petitioner, who is the defacto complainant has filed this petition to cancel the anticipatory bail granted to the first respondent by the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Trichy on the following grounds:

- The learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Trichy failed to appreciate the facts in the intervening petition filed by the petitioner;
- The second respondent is colluding with the first respondent and acted in favour of him;
- Due to the political influence of the first respondent, the second respondent has foisted a false case against the petitioner;
- In this case, the second respondent has not conducted the investigation in a fair and proper manner;
- The first respondent is threatening the defacto complainant to withdraw the case.

3.The aforesaid grounds are not valid grounds for cancellation of anticipatory bail granted to the first respondent. If the petitioner is aggrieved over the investigation conducted by the second respondent, she is at liberty to file an appropriate petition before the concerned Magistrate.

CRL.O.P (MD) No.6030 of 2024

4.In view of the above, this petition stands dismissed.
