2. The case of the prosecution is that under the presumption that the defacto complainant had pushed the petitioner's two-wheeler, he attacked the defacto complainant by pelting stones at him, abused him using filthy language and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the the defacto complainant in drunken mood quarreled with the petitioner, for which, the petitioner has lodged a complaint, but the same was not considered by the respondent police. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. No previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the antecedent of the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before
