Crime No.187 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute between the parties, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him and caused injuries to him.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioners have also suffered injuries.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that it is a case in counter and the injured person was discharged from the Hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital and that the petitioners have also injured, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that
