The respondent police registered a case as against this petitioner in Crime No.77 of 2024 for the offence under Sections 406, 420, 294(b) and 506(i) IPC and remanded him into judicial custody on 07.03.2024. Therefore, the petitioner has filed this petition seeking bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has received a sum of Rs.13,00,000/- from the defacto complainant by assuring that he would arrange a job in abroad for him.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he is languishing in jail from 07.03.2024.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent opposes for grant of bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. He further submits that a sum of Rs.3 lakh has been deposited in the petitioner's bank account. This is the second bail application and considering the fact that the amount has been deposited in the petitioner's bank account, the earlier bail application was dismissed by this Court on 12.04.2024 in CrI.O.P.(MD)No.5326 of 2024.

5. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner disputes the same and by referring the bank statement of the petitioner, submits that there is no deposit of amount by the defacto complainant in the petitioner's bank account. Therefore, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the nature of offence and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
