2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel between the parties, the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that it is a case in counter and the injured person was discharged from the Hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that
