2. The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute between the parties, the petitioner and other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked her and caused injuries to her.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that there was a family dispute between the parties. The first accused is the son of the petitioner and the injured person was discharged from the Hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital and that this is a dispute between the family members, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that

(i) the petitioner executes a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Peravurani;
