2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner misbehaved with the defacto complainant, abused her in filthy language, slapped her and also threatened her with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submits that after enquiry a case in Crime No.130 of 2024 was registered by the respondent police. The investigation is yet to be completed. However, he fairly submits that the petitioner is not having any previous case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence and considering the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case and that the occurrence is said to have taken place between the relatives, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that
