2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner and other accused abused the defacto complainant by using filthy language, attacked him with wooden log and also threatened with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submits that there are two accused in this case, the petitioner is arrayed as A2 and A1 in this case was arrested and subsequently, released on bail. It is a case in counter. The investigation is yet to be completed. However, he fairly submits that the petitioner is not having any previous case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence and considering the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that
