For seeking anticipatory bail Crl.O.P(MD).Nos.12300 and 10517 of 2022 have been filed by Subramanian and Shanthi before this Court and the applications heard together and this Court made a following observation :

" When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that by the order, dated 26.07.2022, the matters were referred to the Mediation Centre. In the mediation, the matters have been compromised between the parties for separation. Hence, the matters have become infructuous. The terms of compromise shall form part and parcel of the record."

2. Now the defacto complainant filed recall petition by making some grievances. Over the above said grievances, this Court issued a notice to the respondents 2 and 3 and they were appeared through their counsel.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner/defacto complainant submitted that there was no complete compromise between the parties.
