3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the complainant only started the quarrel with the petitioner. However, he foisted the complaint against the petitioner. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the accused, by using a towel, tried to kill the defacto complainant and caused simple injury. The injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate on condition that

(i) the petitioner execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees

Twenty Five Thousand) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to
