2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a wordy quarrel, on 02.04.2024, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and assaulted him.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposes for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the petitioner is having three previous cases.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner, in order to show his bona fide, has donated books worth about Rs.10,000/- to the Devar Primary School situated at Nagachi, Uchipuli. He has filed an affidavit to that effect. He further submits that the petitioner also undertakes that he will not indulge in any other offence in future.

6. Considering the nature of offence and also considering the fact that the petitioner has donated books worth about Rs.10,000/- to the School and also undertakes that he will not indulge in any other offence in future, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
