Act, have filed this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 04.04.2024 at about 08.00 p.m., there was a wordy quarrel between the parties, due to which, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and his son in filthy language and attacked them. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent police has objected for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the first petitioner has three previous cases to his credit and the investigation is yet to be completed. He fairly conceded that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there is a specific overt act against the first petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the first petitioner. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed as against the first petitioner.
