2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and other accused persons were wearing T-shirts printed with the words, Padai Palam, while taking part in the temple festival. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, there was a dispute among them. Consequently, all the accused attacked the defacto complainant and caused injury and threatened him with dire consequences.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent police has objected for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. He fairly conceded that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegations and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Kulithalai, Karur District, on condition that the
