2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity with regard to money dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the first petitioner is the prime accused in this case and due to the attack made by him, the de-facto complainant suffered grievous injury and he was arrested by the respondent police. The petitioners 2 to 5 are the friends of the first petitioner.

5. Considering the nature of allegation and also considering the antecedents of the petitioners 2 to 5, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners 2 to 5. Since the first petitioner is arrested, this petition is dismissed as against him.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is partly allowed. In so far as the first petitioner is concerned, this petition is dismissed. The petitioners 2 to 5 are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance
