2.The case of the prosecution is that on 11.04.2024 there was a wordy quarrel between them with regard to parking of vehicle in front of the petitioners' house, the petitioners scolded the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not indulged in any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) for the respondent strongly opposes for the grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. He fairly conceded that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the nature of offence and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thottiyam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/-(Rupees Twenty Five

Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

- i. The petitioner and the sureties shall submit a copy of their Aadhaar Card or any other identity card issued by the Government in proof of their residence address;
- ii. The petitioner shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required. He has to co-operate for the investigation;
- iii. The petitioner shall not misuse the liberty granted to him by indulging in any further offence and shall not tamper with the prosecution witnesses. The petitioner shall be available for the trial as well.
- iv. On violation of any of the above conditions by the petitioner, the respondent police shall move an application for cancellation of the anticipatory bail.
