2. The case of the prosecution is that on 20.04.2024, at about 4.00 p.m., the petitioner met the defacto complainant and demanded him to pay money. When the defacto complainant refused to pay money, the petitioner abused him in filthy language, attacked him and caused injuries. The petitioner has also threatened him with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) opposes for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the petitioner is having one previous case. However, he fairly submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegations and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
