When the matter was called, it was submitted by the learned Government Advocate that the respondent has not turned up and no application for extension of time is filed. On that account bailable warrant was ordered to be issued to the respondent. But in the Afternoon Session, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that investigation has been completed and RCS notice was prepared. The respondent is present in person and copy of the final report is also submitted. He submitted that notice was also sent to the petitioner and served on 25.07.2024.

2. Let the petitioner work out remedy through appropriate proceedings, if so aggrieved over the contention of the final report. The bailable warrant issued to the respondent is recalled.

3. Accordingly, this Contempt Petition is closed. No costs.
