CRL OP(MD). No.6868 of 2024

Crime No.47 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) and 307 of IPC, has filed this petition seeking bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused abused and assaulted the defacto complainant by using a sickle and wooden log and caused injuries to him.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he is languishing in jail from 20.04.2024. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposes for grant of bail to the petitioner and submits that the investigation is yet to be completed. The petitioner is arrayed as sixth accused. He further submits that the injured person has been discharged from the Hospital.

5. Heard both sides.

6. This Court, while granting bail in this matter, has taken into consideration (a) gravity of the crime, (b) character of the evidence, (c) position and status of the accused with reference to the victim and witnesses, (d) likelihood of the accused fleeing from justice and repeating the offence, (e) possibility of the accused (petitioner) tampering with the witnesses and obstructing the course of justice.

7. It is also settled law that at the time of consideration of bail application, it is neither necessary nor desirable to weigh the evidence meticulously to arrive at a positive finding as to whether or not the accused (petitioner) has committed the alleged offences. What is to be seen is whether there is a reasonable ground for believing that accused (petitioner) is not guilty of the offences he is charged with.

8. The Court has to strike a balance between the rights of the accused (petitioner) to his liberty and the interest of the society. Liberty of an accused (petitioner) cannot be snatched unreasonably for an uncertain time only on the basis of mere allegations.
