For Bail in Crime No. 99 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who was arrested on 27.03.2024, in connection with a case in Crime No.99 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420 and 469 of IPC, has filed this petition seeking bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused persons have collected a sum of Rs.3,48,971/- through online from the defacto complainant on a promise that they were arranging tour package to the customers, in the name and style of "Dream Gateway". However, they failed to honour their promise. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, she is languishing in jail from 27.03.2024. He further submits that the petitioner is an employee of the first accused Company and on that ground she has been implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposes for grant of bail to the petitioner that she is the employee of the A1/Company. He further submits that no amount has been recovered from the accused persons.

5. Heard both sides.

6. This Court, while granting bail in this matter, has taken into consideration (a) gravity of the crime, (b) character of the evidence, (c) position and status of the accused with reference to the victim and witnesses, (d) likelihood of the accused fleeing from justice and repeating the offence, (e) possibility of the accused (petitioner) tampering with the witnesses and obstructing the course of justice.

7. It is also settled law that at the time of consideration of bail application, it is neither necessary nor desirable to weigh the evidence meticulously to arrive at a positive finding as to whether or not the accused (petitioner) has committed the alleged offences. What is to be seen is whether there is a reasonable ground for believing that accused (petitioner) is not guilty of the offences she is charged with.

8. The Court has to strike a balance between the rights of the accused (petitioner) to her liberty and the interest of the society. Liberty of an accused (petitioner) cannot be snatched unreasonably for an uncertain time only on the basis of mere allegations.

9. After taking into consideration the aforementioned factors, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to fulfilment of the following conditions by her.

- i. The petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kodaikanal.
- ii. The petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the learned Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

- iii. The petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m until further orders for interrogation;
- iv. The petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;
- v. The petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
- vi. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and ;
- vii. If the accused/petitioner thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
