2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons had misappropriated and cheated the society with fake documents and caused loss to the society to the tune of Rs.10,02,64,866/-. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) has raised serious objections that the first accused, namely, Masoothu, is the liquidator appointed for the Thoothukudi Co-operative Building Society. The first petitioner/A2 was the then President of EE.31 Thoothukudi Government Servant Public Service Co-operative Housing Society; the second petitioner/ A4 is the Secretary of the Thoothukudi VAO and Revenue Co-operative Society and A3 is the wife of A2. All the accused had conspired together and transferred the property of the Thoothukudi Co-operative Building Society in the names of A2 and A3. He has also produced some photographs that the subject property of the Thoothukudi Co-operative Building Society is under the custody of the accused and the same is also hired for the purpose of parking the vehicles. He further submits that the investigation is in the crucial stage.
