the offences punishable under Sections 147, 448, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.344 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 03.05.2024, at about 10.00 p.m, when the defacto complainant was returning to his house, the petitioner along with other accused stopped the defacto complainant. When the same was questioned by him, there was wordy quarrel arose between them. Thereafter, they went to the house of the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language and attacked him with knife and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital.
