2. The case of the prosecution is that on 18.04.2024, at about 09.30 p.m, when the defacto complainant was returning to his house from his shop, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language. When the same was questioned by his relatives namely, Arunachalamani, he attacked him with plastic grade and caused injuries to him and also threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital.
