2.The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was demanding her 2 sovereigns of gold jewel from the petitioner, the petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant with knife and also committed theft of 7 sovereigns of gold jewels and caused injuries to her.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent strongly opposes to grant bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. He further submits that the petitioner is the daughter of the first accused. A1 and A3 were arrested and released on bail and A4 was also granted anticipatory bail.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
