Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.442 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused have illegally transported 1-1/2 units of river sand . Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against him, hence he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused have illegally transported 1-1/2 units of river sand and also submitted that four previous cases are pending against the petitioner, hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the properties have been recovered, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions:
