the offences punishable under section 379 I.P.C., and section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.65 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have illegally transported the graval sand without any valid permission. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them, hence he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners have illegally transported the graval sand, hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. However he fairly concedes that no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
