2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.04.2024, at about 10.30 a.m, due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked the defacto complainant with knife. When the the daughter of the defacto complainant tried to prevent the same, they also attacked her and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the co-accused was already released on bail. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital and the co-accused was already released on bail.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the facts that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital and the co-accused was already released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
