respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.68 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute between the parties, on 06.05.2024, there was a wordy quarrel arose between them. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police strongly opposes for the grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that due to land dispute, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with aruval. However he fairly conceded that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
