2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the TNSTC bus driver. On 11.04.2024 when he drove the bus to Nilakottai, at Karupatti bus stop, all the three accused persons stopped the bus and made quarrel with him and abused him with filthy language and threatened him with dire consequence. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that there is one previous case pending against the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
