2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the first petitioner is having seven previous cases and the second petitioner is having fourteen previous cases. He would further submit that earlier the petitioners filed a petition for anticipatory bail and considering the previous antecedents of the petitioners, this Court dismissed the same. Therefore, he would pray to dismiss the present petition.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
