2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is working in a private company at Bangalore. He borrowed a sum of Rs.1,15,000/- from one Hasnulla, Rias Prabu and Nithiskumar, who are residing in Palayam for his personal needs. Thereafter, he paid a sum of Rs.30,000/- and failed to pay the balance amount of Rs.85,000/-. In such circumstances, he went to his native place for participating village festival. On 13.05.2024, at about 11.15 p.m, the petitioner along with other accused went to the house of the defacto complainant and demanded the amount. Thereafter, they picked up the defacto complainant in a two wheeler to the Cricket play ground, Kaachakaranpatti and abused him in filthy language and attacked him with their hands and legs and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the injured has already been discharged from

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the facts that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vedaendur, Dindigul District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of 4 weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial
