The petitioner/A1, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 379 I.P.C and section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.212 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused have illegally transported one unit of river sand. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him, hence he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Trichy District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of
