anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity the accused persons abused the defacto complainant, assaulted and also threatened with dire consequences, hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, hence he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the accused persons abused the defacto complainant, assaulted and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, she objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However he fairly concedes that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.
