2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the parties, due to which, the accused is said to have pushed down the victim and hence, the victim died.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is arrayed as A2, who is the son of A1 and he is said to have attacked the deceased. But there is no corresponding injury recorded and the death is also due to high blood pressure.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent opposed this petition on the ground that the petitioner is said to have attacked the deceased in his private part and the investigation is yet to be completed.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that

(i) the petitioner executes a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned
