The petitioners, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent Police, in connection with a case in Crime No.162 of 2024, for the offence under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC, have filed this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 22.05.2024 at about 10.30 a.m., when the defacto complainant and his relatives were talking in front of his house, the accused persons came there and attacked the defacto complainant and his relatives with a wooden log and caused injuries and also threatened them with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) opposes for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. However, he fairly submits that the injured have been discharged from the hospital.
