2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant has borrowed a sum of Rs.2,00,000/- from the accused and the defacto complainant has issued two unfilled cheques to them. The accused have demanded exorbitant interest from the petitioner. They also presented the cheques for collection and the same was returned as 'payment stopped by drawer'. Then the defacto complainant has lodged the complaint to receive the cheque and stamp paper from the accused.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that there is no material evidence to show that the cheques have been misused by the accused. Only on apprehension, the defacto complainant has lodged this complaint. He further submits that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the antecedents of the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance
