2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is a pharmacist and working as a Drug Analystist. While so, his close relative is the respondent herein borrowed money to the tune of Rs.1,80,00,000/- from the petitioner by executing debt deed and also issued cheques to settle the same. But he failed to return the money and all the cheques were bounced. Hence, legal notice was issued on 24.12.2020 and the same was received by the respondent on 26.12.2020. Despite the notice, the respondent failed to return the money. Hence the petitioner had filed a petition in S.T.C.No.59 of 2021 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tirumangalam, and the same was taken on file on 12.02.2021.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the respondent cheated the petitioner and usurped his huge amount and living a luxurious life without returning the money and dragging the case unnecessarily. Hence, he seeks for interim compensation.

4. This Court has considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the records placed before this Court.

Crl.R.C(MD)No.544 of 2024

5. Considering the submissions made by the learned Counsel for the petitioner, this Court is directing the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tirumangalam, to dispose the case within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this Order.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Revision Petition is disposed of.
