sanctioned, the petitioner, who is working as BT Assistant, has been deployed and this created an opportunity to the third respondent school to fill up the post of PG Assistants through direct recruitment.

Since the third respondent school has got vacancies in PG Assistants and the petitioner is said to have got the qualification to be considered to the post and similarly placed excess BT Assistant Teachers have already been considered and have been conveniently placed in the existing PG Assistants posts, the third respondent shall consider the petitioner and pass such orders before relieving her within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

7. If the petitioner is promoted and posted as PG Assistant (Chemistry) within a period of two months as stated above, the impugned deployment order will itself become infructuous, otherwise, if the petitioner has not been considered and not posted in the third respondent school, then, the petitioner has no other go except to obey the orders and report to the school to which she was deployed.
