complainant and accused persons with regard to the arrangements of funeral, in which, the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant and three others with wooden logs.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents persons and they did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police raises serious objections to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners by stating that the defacto complainant sustained grievous injury in his head and he is still in hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the nature of injury sustained by the defacto complainant, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed.
