2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant's son and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner abused her in filthy language and also attacked her.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he fairly submits that the petitioner is ready to pay compensation to the injured persons.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) for the respondent opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on the ground that due to the attack of the petitioner, the defacto complainant and her son sustained head injuries.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and the petitioner's willingness to pay the injured, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
