2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner/A4 is said to have assisted A1 and A2 to get a bogus immigration certificate for A2. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a Srilankan and he has nothing to do with the offence. He has visited India thrice on a valid passport issued by the Srilankan Government that too on tourist visa. He further submits that when the petitioner came up for medical check up, the respondent police has arrested him on 02.05.2024 and foisted this case. He further submits that no materials have been recovered from this petitioner that he has prepared bogus immigration certificate.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposes for grant of bail to the petitioner that the investigation in this case is yet to be completed.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, considering the period of incarceration and the allegation as against this petitioner and the fact that the respondent police has not recovered any materials that this petitioner has prepared a bogus immigration certificate, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with some conditions.
