2.The matter was referred to mediation. In the presence of the mediator, both parties have settled their issues by agreeing to file a mutual consent petition and to withdraw the respective petitions. The mediated settlement agreement is also filed, which is duly signed by the parties. Both sides learned counsel agreed that such a settlement is arrived at before the mediation centre.

3.In view thereof, the Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition is disposed of by recording the terms of settlement and the terms of settlement shall form part of the order. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.

4.Needless to mention that as and when such an application for mutual consent is filed, the trial Court will take into account that already the parties were in dispute and only after settlement in mediation the petition under Section 13B be filed and the same will be appropriately considered as and when waiver application is filed.
