2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him with wooden log.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that the victim has sustained grievous injuries and was taking treatment for more than a month. A1 in this case was already arrested and released on bail. The investigation is yet to be completed.

5. Considering the nature of offence, the overt act against the petitioners that they have accompanied with the other accused and the main accused/A1 already was released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners
