The petitioners, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent Police, in connection with a case in Crime No.96 of 2024, for the offence punishable under Section 379 IPC, have filed this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have illegally transported seven bags of river sand in three two-wheelers. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the quantity of the mineral and also considering the antecedents of the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate on condition that
