The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.125 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute at the time of funeral ceremony of the defacto complainant's uncle, wherein, the petitioners are said to have assaulted the defacto complainant.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have never committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. When they were attending the funeral ceremony, the petitioners alone started trouble. He further submits that this is the second petition filed by the petitioners. The earlier application was dismissed on the ground that the injured was not discharged from the Hospital at that point of time. Now, the injured has been discharged from the Hospital.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submits that both the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. The injured has now been discharged from the Hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the fact that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives and the injured has been discharged from the Hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Peravurani on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Peravurani and on further conditions that:

- i. The petitioners and the sureties shall submit a copy of their Aadhaar Card or any other identity card issued by the Government in proof of their residence address;
- ii. The petitioners shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.
- iii. The petitioners shall not misuse the liberty granted to him by indulging in any further offence and shall not tamper with the prosecution witnesses. The petitioners shall be available for the
