quarrel between the accused and the defacto complainant. In that quarrel, the accused have abused the defacto complainant using filthy language, attacked him using wooden stick and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that one previous cases is pending against the second petitioner and the investigation is pending. He further submits that the petitioners had already filed a petition in Crl.O.P(MD)No.7976 of 2024, seeking the very same relief. By considering the manner in which the occurrence had taken place, this Court has dismissed the same.

5. Considering the stage of investigation and also considering that there is no change in the attitude of the petitioners, this Court is not inclined to grant any relief to the petitioners. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
