connection with a case in Crime No.236 of 2024, for the offence punishable under Sections 307, 109 and 427 IPC, have filed this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the 2nd petitioner's marriage was solemnized with one Pavithra on 15.12.2023. Due to previous enmity with regard to family dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked her and also damaged vehicle of the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that it is a case in counter. The injured has been discharged from the hospital. Further, he submits that no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5. Considering the antecedents of the petitioners and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before
